
TIME TO CELEBRATE!

– Monika Muranyi

Having a positive outlook on life is a life-long pursuit. Being optimistic and positive is a habit, which begins from expressing gratitude and appreciation on a daily basis. No matter what may be happening in your life, there is always something to be thankful for. An attitude of gratitude often attracts benevolence. Here are five concepts to celebrate as part of your daily routine.

Are there things in your life that you'd like to change, but you feel it will never happen? How do you respond when someone tells you, it can't happen, or it can't be done? Is that really true? If so, perhaps it's time to start looking at things a little differently. The next time someone tells you, it can't happen, can you respond by saying, "Well, I don't know how it's going to happen, but I feel confident that it can happen." When we truly believe in a possibility for change, that possibility turns into hope, which generates the energy of allowance. When you allow for unexpected benevolent change, benevolent changes can occur. The more we receive benevolence and express our gratitude and appreciation, the more likely we are to keep receiving!

Kryon, a loving entity channelled by Lee Carroll, has given us five concepts that we can be grateful for in this new energy that has emerged on the planet. As you read about each concept, take a moment to celebrate each one, and the impact it can have for you personally.

Number One: Celebrate a Bright Future.

Often there is a tendency to discount things to come, based on what has happened in the past, especially when it comes to Human nature. Even though peace is prevalent on the planet, many are still expecting another war! While the past has occurred, the future has never been written. Can you rewrite this in your psyche? Kryon says we can and asks us to say the following out loud,

"Dear Spirit, I understand this. I know that the future has been rewritten and is filled with the purity, beauty, and compassion of new change. I know that I can steer my life into that beautiful, serene ocean that's never existed before called my future. I hereby drop the deception that the future has to be something I've seen before. What's coming is totally fresh."

What about the scenario where you want to create, be, or do something that you have no experience in? Or perhaps you may think you are too old to start something new? If this is you, Kryon encourages us to verbalize the following,

"Dear Spirit, I will never give verbiage to can't again. Dear Spirit, I know that there are things for me beyond which I can imagine. No matter how old I am, I know that I can go further than I ever have gone before."

Number Two: Celebrate an Awakening Akash

Your Akash represents all the energy of your past expressions (past lives), and the potentials of everything yet to come in your future expressions (future lives). Since 2012 there is a new paradigm where old souls are beginning to awaken and remember their Akash. Within this remembrance is the fact that you are powerful and can create another reality. Kryon wants us to know that,

“There are talents here for you that you’ve never had before in this life, that are starting to show themselves. You’re on a path you’ve not seen yet that will take you light years ahead of where you are now. Anything that you wish to accomplish in this energy is possible, with the wind at your back.”

Number Three: Celebrate your Worthiness

Have you ever fantasized about something magnificent that would set your heart ablaze with happiness only to catch yourself in the next moment with the thought that you don’t deserve it? Unfortunately it’s a common trait amongst old souls to feel unworthy, but nothing could be further from the truth! Kryon ask us to take a deep breath and say, “Not only am I worthy, I am very worthy.”

“Old Soul, you know better. You’re worthy! Sit there for a moment and know that you are worthy. Every master who walked the planet has told you this – God inside! The almighty God that created this galaxy has created you in a beautiful image of itself. So you might take a moment, take a breath and say, “Unlike the old energy and the deception that I had, I no longer buy into that which I was told. I was born into magnificence because I have God inside and all that I see is made from God. I see God everywhere, in everyone, and I honor this beautiful truth. I am worthy to see it, and I am it.”

Number Four: The Love of the Creator

There is absolutely nothing more pure in the Universe than the love of God. The power of love is the creative energy of life itself. Love and compassion are the pure elements of God. God gives you only help and benevolence. Kryon tells us that we all have free choice, and regardless of what we choose to do or believe, God loves us no matter what! Therefore, it is impossible for God to judge you. With free choice you can do anything, but when you begin to see who God is, your life starts changing and you start to see the immense beauty of the partnership you have with the Creative Source.

The seed of God is within you. The Creator of the Universe is part of your very cells. Kryon tells us we are born magnificent and worthy, and made in the image of God. Perhaps it’s time to rewrite what you were told about who God is? Kryon tells us the truth is spectacularly different! It’s time to celebrate the splendor of a loving, benevolent, and personal God.

Number Five: Light is Winning

While there are many still many horrible events and crimes against humanity on the planet, Kryon wants us to know that light is winning. Not only is it winning, but also it has been a prophecy from so many different indigenous tribes all over the Earth. The prophecy of the Eagle and the Condor, the Journey of the Feathered Serpent, and the Awakening of the Puma all speak of the 2012 shift. These prophecies are about balancing the masculine and feminine energies, which will create an era of the highest consciousness ever to be seen. Kryon invites us to take a moment to proclaim this new energy as an affirmation and say,

“Dear Spirit, I am in control of my life. Light is in control of this planet and slowly it will illuminate the shadows, chasing the dark away like it never has before. Light is winning in this new energy.”

By affirming this, especially on a daily basis, you will begin to see a planet starting to come into a new way of thinking, where love and compassion are of far greater interest than fear, war and drama.

Finally, Kryon tells us that the center of the Universe has a consciousness of love that is the Creative Source and it lives within you every day. Can you smile with that and celebrate?
